INTRODUCTION:

On December 14, 2018, at approximately 22:06, while performing patrol duties as 2P31, I, Deputy M. Silvas, along with Deputy J. Holley, was dispatched to the 4502 Tower Road in the unincorporated area of Galveston County, in reference to a physical disturbance. The caller said she was told by her friend that her friend was being assault by her friend's husband.

SCENE DESCRIPTION:

4502 Tower Rd is a single story residential structure (a manufactured trailer) with the front door facing east. There is a long gravel driveway leading up to the south east side of the home.

DETAILS:

I arrived on scene and made contact with Kristen Bryant (W/F - [REDACTED]), who stated she was involved in a physical altercation with her husband. At that moment, A white male came from around the back of the house who was identified by Kristen as her husband, later identified as STEPHEN PATRICK BRYANT (W/M - [REDACTED]). STEPHEN saw the clearly marked police units (some with flashing red & blue lights activated), and uniformed officers. Upon seeing us, he then told Kristen not to unlock the gate for us and not to let us inside the property. After saying this STEPHEN ran away towards the backside of the residence. Deputy Holley and I pursued STEPHEN, as we believed him to likely have been the offender in the alleged assault.

STEPHEN ran behind his house and made his way into the house through the back door. STEPHEN then locked his door and refused let us inside. STEPHEN was ordered several times to open the door and told we would be forced to make entry if he didn't. Still, STEPHEN refused to open the door, so Deputy Holley ran to the front of the home made entry through the front door by force. STEPHEN was then detained without incident, so that a further investigation could be conducted. After speaking with Kristen again, she alleged during their argument that STEPHEN pushed her down onto their bed using a laptop that was in his hands. When asked, Kristen said this caused her physical pain and also left red markings on her neck, which I observed. When asked, Kristen stated she wished to pursue criminal charges against STEPHEN.

As per Texas Penal Code section 22.01- ASSAULT:

(a) A person commits an offense if the person:

- (1) intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly causes bodily injury to another, including the person's spouse;
- (2) intentionally or knowingly threatens another with imminent bodily injury, including the person's spouse; or
- (3) intentionally or knowingly causes physical contact with another when the person knows or should reasonably believe that the other will regard the contact as offensive or provocative.

As per Texas Penal Code section 38.04 - EVADING ARREST OR DETENTION:

(a) A person commits an offense if he intentionally flees from a person he knows is a peace officer or federal special investigator attempting lawfully to arrest or detain him.

Given the totality of the circumstances, sufficient probable cause existed to arrest STEPHEN for the above referenced offenses. ADA James Haugh was then contacted and charges were accepted for assault against a family member with a prior conviction. A bond of $5000 was set for that offense. Kristen was then issued a Family Violence Packet, which has been submitted as an attachment to this case. I also took photographs of Kristen, her injuries, and the damage to the door. STEPHEN was then transported to Santa Fe City Jail for booking, without incident.

A copy of the in-car video recording from unit 3642 was later submitted to the secure WatchGuard Evidence Library. The photographs taken on scene were also later submitted to the secure ID server. Family Violence bond conditions and a Magistrate's Order of Emergency Protection was also filed. No further action taken.
